ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES THREE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of three new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 93 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- AxesNetwork Solutions, based in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Canada, provides casinos and their customers secure and reliable on-line cashless payment management solutions, along with player tracking and machine statistics modules.
- Phelps Dunbar, LLP, based in Baton Rouge, La., is a leading law firm providing global licensing and legal services to gaming equipment manufacturers.
- THT, based in Ljubljana, Slovenia, manufacturers innovative casino gaming machines with a current focus on electronic poker tables.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
