ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES THREE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of three new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 81 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- IdeaWork Studios, Inc., with offices in Las Vegas and Santa Barbara, Calif., is a full-service interactive agency specializing in online and offline promotions, with an emphasis on the gaming and resort industries.
- INTRALOT S.A., a publicly listed company with headquarters in Athens, Greece, and a presence in 50 countries on five continents, is a leading supplier of integrated gaming and transaction processing systems, game content and sports betting management, to state-licensed gaming organizations worldwide.
- Talent Associates, based in Las Vegas, has been providing quality models and talent for trade shows, corporate events and the gaming industry since 1996.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
