ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES SIX NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of the Directors has approved the membership applications of six new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 67 members.

The new AGEM members:

- AP-ID Inc., based in Green Bay, Wis., is a leader in identification validation technology for casino resorts.
- DynaGraphic Printing, based in Reno, Nev., offers quality conventional printing services enhanced with cross-media capabilities.
- Incredible Technologies, based in Arlington Heights, Ill., is a designer and manufacturer of top quality Class III gaming machines.
- Masterpiece Advertising, based in Atlantic City, N.J., is a full-service advertising, marketing and public relations agency.
- Regulatory Management Counselors, based in East Lansing, Mich., is a law firm that specializes in assisting gaming suppliers and financial institutions.
- Strategy9, based in St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada, provides marketing automation software and direct mail services to the casino industry.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
