ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES EIGHT NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of eight new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 149.

The new AGEM members are:

- Agilysys, based in Alpharetta, Ga., is a leading global provider of next-generation hospitality software solutions and services.
- Casino Connection International, based in Henderson, Nev., is the parent company of Global Gaming Business (GGB) magazine and its affiliated titles and websites.
- CDC Gaming Reports, based in Las Vegas, is one of the largest gaming industry news resources in the world and distributes its daily reports to more than 35,000 industry professionals.
- Century Gaming Technologies, based in Las Vegas, manufactures gaming devices with a special emphasis on the Nevada locals market and is also a route operator.
- Coretronic, based in Hsinchu, Taiwan, is a leading projector manufacturer specializing in high-performance, low power-consumption, laser- and LED-based DLP projection technologies.
- Four Corners, based in Dallas, provides technology and operational solutions to lottery, charitable bingo and commercial and tribal gaming operators.
- GameCo, based in New York City, is a new company uniting video games with real-money casino floor gaming through proprietary arcade-style cabinets that balance player skill with proprietary game design.
- Media Resources International, based in Oakville, Ontario, Canada, and founded in 1967, manufactures digital LED displays for use in outdoor advertising and indoor displays.

AGEM is a non-profit international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, lotteries, systems, table games, online technology, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, regulatory influence, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory agencies and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
