ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES FIVE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of five new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 116 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- BBIN, based in Makati City, Philippines, specializes in providing integrated systems for business-to-business operations and management.
- Daktronics, based in Brookings, S.D., has strong leadership positions in, and is the world's largest supplier of large-screen video displays, electronic scoreboards, LED text and graphic displays, and related systems.
- Reel Games, based in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., specializes in the sale, lease and service of top-end slot machines, progressive systems, tournament packages, signage and table games.
- Reel TV, based in Henderson, Nev., utilizes its "Slot Concierge" technology to blend videos, advertising and promotional content on existing slot machines on the casino floor.
- Spin Games, based in Sparks, Nev., specializes in innovative gaming concepts, premium slot content and intellectual property for the gaming industry.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, regulatory influence, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory agencies and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
