ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES THREE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of three new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 76 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- CMYK Creative, based in Las Vegas, is a full-service design and marketing firm providing a wide range of services and solutions.
- Cybertec Gaming Systems, based in Oklahoma City, is a new company focusing on software development and the refurbishment of gaming machines.
- Howard & Howard, founded in 1869, is a full-service law firm with a national and international practice that provides specialized legal services to businesses and business owners from its multiple office locations, including Las Vegas.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
