ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES THREE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of three new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 129 members, an all-time high for the organization.

The new AGEM members are:

- British Group Interactive (BGI), based in Mount Pearl, Canada, is a highly integrated manufacturer and supplier of gaming products with a special emphasis on charitable gaming solutions.
- Brown & Brown Insurance of Nevada, based in Las Vegas, is an insurance brokerage and consultancy business experienced in a variety of industries including gaming, hotel/casino and technology.
- International Network in Advance Gaming (INAG), based in Minden, Nev., is a manufacturer and distributor of gaming products and equipment and claims the No. 1 card-based roulette game in the world.

AGEM is a non-profit international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, regulatory influence, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory agencies and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
