ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT
MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES FOUR NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of four new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world’s leading gaming suppliers to a total of 112 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- Carmanah Signs, based in Calgary, Alberta, is a leading supplier of LCD and LED signage for gaming, hospitality and food-service areas with more than 600 casinos worldwide using its products.
- DiTronics Financial Services, based in Las Vegas, provides ATMs, cash advance, check cashing and other cash access solutions to the gaming industry.
- Greenberg Traurig, LLP is an international full-service law firm with more than 1,750 attorneys and traces its roots in Las Vegas back to 1969 where it focuses its practice primarily on the gaming industry.
- Portwell, based in Shulin City, Taiwan, is a global IPC manufacturer with more than 18 years of experience providing a wide array of industrial-grade products in various applications.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
