ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT
MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES
SEVEN NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of seven new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world’s leading gaming suppliers to a total of 126 members, an all-time high for the organization.

The new AGEM members are:

- Arrow International, based in Cleveland, is the world’s largest full-line manufacturer of bingo paper, pull tabs and related gaming products with more than 45 years of industry experience.
- Digital Instinct, based in Brisbane, Australia, is a leading software development company that has developed world-class software solutions for labor and workforce management.
- ISMS, based in Hong Kong, is a large multinational company that primarily buys and sells used slot machines.
- Metalcraft, based in Boise, Idaho, is a precision sheet metal and fabrication shop serving multiple markets in the U.S. with a focus on the semi-conductor, electronics, aerospace, transportation, gaming and medical industries.
- Ortiz Gaming, based in Sao Paulo, Brazil, with key offices in Madrid, Spain, and Miami, is an international company in 16 countries worldwide that is principally focused on Class II hardware and software.
- Renewable Creative, based in Henderson, Nev., is an advertising agency with both business-to-business and business-to-consumer creativity for gaming manufacturers, casinos and the hospitality and resort industries.
- TOVIS, based in Incheon, Korea, provides a wide variety of leading touch-screen and display technology and solutions.

AGEM is a non-profit international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, regulatory influence, trade show partnerships, educational alliances, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory agencies and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
