ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES TWO NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of the Directors has approved the membership applications of two new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 58 members.

The new AGEM members:

- Elektroncek, based in Menges, Slovenia, has earned its reputation as the world leader in the development, production, and distribution of multiplayer electromechanical gaming machines under the Interblock brand.
- Intel, the world leader in silicon innovation, develops technologies, products and initiatives to continually advance how people work and live.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives. For more information, visit www.AGEM.org.
