ASSOCIATION OF GAMING EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (AGEM) ANNOUNCES THREE NEW MEMBERS JOIN ORGANIZATION

LAS VEGAS – The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) announced today that its Board of Directors has approved the membership applications of three new companies, bringing the trade group comprised of the world's leading gaming suppliers to a total of 83 members.

The new AGEM members are:

- Ceronix, Inc., based in Auburn, Calif., is a leader in the development and manufacturing of color video display monitors, LCD replacement kits and digital information displays for the gaming and kiosk markets.
- Lightning Gaming, Inc., based in Philadelphia, designs, develops and markets premier fully automated electronic poker tables and innovative slot products under the brands Lightning Poker™ and Lightning Slots™.
- SCA Gaming, based in Las Vegas with corporate headquarters in Dallas, is a leader in marketing and gaming promotions and has worked with more than 360 casinos to date on more than 3,000 promotions that have paid nearly $100 million to lucky winners.

AGEM is an international trade association representing manufacturers and suppliers of electronic gaming devices, systems, table games, key components and support products and services for the gaming industry. AGEM works to further the interests of gaming equipment suppliers throughout the world. Through political action, trade show partnerships, information dissemination and good corporate citizenship, the members of AGEM work together to create benefits for every company within the organization. Together, AGEM has assisted regulatory commissions and participated in the legislative process to solve problems and create a business environment where AGEM members can prosper while providing a strong level of support to education and responsible gaming initiatives.
